

Full Time Mission Message #2

Elder /Sister xxxxxx,

I thought I would share with you 3 slides from an all-day motivational seminar I gave at an International Conference in Toronto, Canada. It certainly depicts what you can and will accomplish on your mission. You will never in this life time know the influence you have had on others or the good that it has done or will continue to do in their lives for years to come. We just have to trust that we have done our best and as President Kimball said, "Come home with worn out shoes".

May the Lord continue to bless you every day of your mission to do more than you have done in all the past. I know you can do that because now you know how to be an "EXCELLENT MISSIONARY".

Ammon promised us in the Book of Mormon that we could convert 1000's of people.

Alma 26:22 Yea, he that repenteth and exerciseth faith, and bringeth forth good works, and prayeth continually without ceasing—unto such it is given to know them mysteries of God; yea, unto such it shall be given to reveal things which never have been revealed; yea, and it shall be given unto such to bring thousands of souls to repentance, even as it has been given unto us to bring these our brethren to repentance.

I have always believed that we would accomplish that by our having covered a few people who then convert others who then convert more. And after a few years the work you have done there in Italy and other places you will be later will literally turn into thousands just as Ammon promised us.

that comes from the power of starting something really good?

Then you get others involved.

And when it is done, sometimes you realize that it doesn't matter who lit the first candle.
