At the beginning of college, all young students are looking for new friends.

The Institute at each college could have a treasure hunt of souls.

On a Saturday morning, the students meet at 9 AM and go on a treasure hunt, for other college students.

They make flyers,

- 1 – Explains Institute
- 2 – Invites students to attend.

They are assigned places to go and place the flyers in foyers of dorms, fraternities, sororities, etc.

As they go, like a treasure hunt, they ask the students,

“If you are NOT BUSY, we are on a treasure hunt to place the flyers and see who can bring the most students back to a FREE LUNCH at the institute. Would you come with us to, place the flyers and help gather students. If you are not doing anything, this is a LOT OF FUN and would help us WIN.

You will MEET a lot of NEW STUDENTS and get a free lunch.

At 12:00 they go back and have a lunch.

The new students are invited to attend, etc.

Things could be given out, as prizes.
